

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL
SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JANUARY 13-14, 2018

PRIEST: We entrust the Father with our lives and needs
in the same hope as Samuel and the first apostles.

DEACON OR LECTOR:

- For the Church, that every Christian believer may work and pray for the unity that is God's will for us, let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For our nation, that we may work together to build a society where no one suffers discrimination because of their race, class, or creed, let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For children, especially children who suffer hunger, homelessness, or neglect, that they may receive the love and care they need,, let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For our beloved dead and all who died recently, that they may come into God's kingdom of light, love, and peace, including Elaine Finnegan, Roy McKercher, Rita Walsh (and):
(read only the name of the deceased for the mass indicated)
 - Sunday 7:30 am - Donna Hannigan
 - Sunday 9:30 am - Michael Radice
 - Sunday 11:30 am - Delfin Mejia
 - Sunday 5:00 pm - Mary Maglione, and Tony Galura
- Read only at the SATURDAY 5:00 pm mass
For the Thanksgiving Intention of Erin Baccoro
let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- Read only at the SUNDAY 5:00 pm mass
For the special intention of the Swaggerty family
let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For all of us, gathered in this holy place, that we may listen to the voice of the Lord, calling us to service of others and holiness of life, let us pray to the Lord: R/.

PRIEST: God of goodness, source of love,
listen to your Church as we call out to you this day.
May we, who have heard your Son calling us
and who have entered into your service, be resolved to listen anew for the direction of the Spirit.
Allow us to come and see all the good things your love promises.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.