

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 9-10, 2018

PRIEST: Dear friends, with supreme authority
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God and disarmed the powers of the demonic realm.
In his name let us pray for a new heaven and a new earth.

DEACON OR LECTOR:

- For Pope Francis, bishop of Rome, and the bishops of of the United States, that they carry out their ministry in the spirit of true discipleship, let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For the leaders of the world's superpowers, that they choose cooperation over conflict and the common good of humanity, let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For all graduates, that they continue to find inspiration in God's word whether they continue on to new levels of learning or begin to build their careers for life, let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For the sick members of our family and our community, for all who suffer from loneliness and depression, that they may never lose hope and gain courage through God's word and sacrament, let us pray to the Lord: R/.
- For our beloved dead, that they will dwell forever in the heavenly home God has built for them, especially (read only the name of the deceased for the mass indicated)
